Dr. Walker Wins Prize For Book

Dr. Wanda Walker, associate professor of education, received first prize in the Philosophical Library Essay Contest of 1962 for her book, A Philosophy of Education. A documented history of American philosophy of education, the book was recently published by the Philosophical Library, New York. It is 132 pages in length, and has 323 footnotes.

In the preface of her book, Dr. Walker states, "The conception of education which permeates this book is that education continues from the cradle to the grave. The dual purpose of education is for the perpetuation of American ideals, attitudes, and beliefs and for the development of each individual to the maximum of his potentiality by emphasis upon a good physical and psychological environment at school."

Dr. Walker

The book is presently on sale at the college bookstore for $3.75.

In addition to her award winning book, Dr. Walker compiled a workbook to accompany the book Child Psychology. Recent magazine articles include "Children Absorb Mental and Emotional Health" published in the February, 1964, issue of Christian Home, the "Make Those Marks More Reliable and Valid" and "The Changing Functions of American Schools" printed in the January, 1964, and February, 1963, issues of School and Community.

Dr. Walker obtained her education at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, and was the first woman and one of the first four candidates to receive a doctor's degree from that university. She received a scholarship for the outstanding junior at the university. She was a member of Kappa Delta Pi, an honor organization in education; Lambda Tau, an honor organization in English; and Phi Beta Kappa, a liberal arts honorary fraternity based upon the scholarship, leadership and character of its members.

Dr. Walker has held offices in the American Association of University Women's organization of Arkansas, has been president of the Northwest Missouri Community Teachers Association and has done extensive work in the Methodist Church of which she is a member.

College Chapter Director of the Delta Zeta sorority, Dr. Walker is a member of the Delta Zeta Alumni chapter.

Senate Postpones Reapportionment

At last week's meeting the Student Senate defeated a motion to submit reapportionment amendments to the student body for approval at the Tower Queen election Mar. 13.

A committee was appointed to study the reapportionment question and prepare proposals to be presented at a later date, possibly the student body president election in April. Apathy and lack of knowledge about the Senate were cited as reasons for the delay at the meeting.

Tower queen candidates should pay their $10 entry fee at the business office by Mar. 6, according to Ellen Grube, queen committee chairman. The possible booking of Peter, Paul and Mary for Mar. 12 fell through. The IFC and the Union Board are attempting to find other big-name entertainment to fill the date.

Attend Education Session in Chicago

Dr. Leon Miller, dean of instruction at Northwest State College, last weekend attended several meetings in Chicago, Ill.

Dr. J. W. Jones, MSC president, also attended sessions held by the National Council of Accreditation of Teaching Education.

Mock Legislature Meet To Be Held Tuesday

An organizational meeting of the MSC delegation to the Mock Legislature in Jefferson City will be held Tuesday in CH 313 at 4 p.m. Democrats, Republicans, and Independents are invited to attend the meeting.

Senate Sets Standards for Who's Who

For the past two weeks the Student Senate has been in the process of determining which senior students will be named to MSC's "Who's Who" for the 1963-64 school year, an honor annually bestowed on ten to fifteen graduating seniors.

All department heads and organizations sponsors have submitted the names of seniors whom they consider deserving of the Who's Who honor. The Senate then contacts each of the people being considered and asks them to fill out an evaluation sheet. Persons who have not been contacted by the Senate may apply for Who's Who at the Dean of Students office, AD 119.

Who's Who evaluation sheets on which the awards are based list areas of achievement including grade point average, participation in campus activities, and contributions to campus life in general and awards a certain number of points to reach activity. Those ranking highest are recognized in Who's Who.

Over one hundred seniors are presently being considered. The final decision will be announced within the next two weeks.

English Exam Set for Wed.

The English Proficiency Examination will be given at 3 p.m. Wednesday February 26, in the Auditorium. Dr. R. P. Foster, dean of administration, emphasizes, "It is the responsibility of the student to take this test as soon as he becomes eligible, as no personal notification will be given."

To be eligible to take the test, which is a requirement for graduation, a student must have completed 45 academic hours, including six hours of English. However, students who have transferred a total of 57 or more academic hours to MSC are not required to take the exam.

The examination is an analysis of how well the student interprets material and expresses himself. The subject matter for the writing is a short time strip which the student describes in an essay. Each paper will be objectively read by five faculty members and must receive three affirmative votes to pass. A list of those who have passed the test will be posted on the bulletin board, and those who fail the exam will be personally notified by the Registrar's office. Anyone who takes the examination but fails to pass it should contact Dr. Frank Grube, chairman of the English department.

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

ALL THAT JAZZ

Decisions, Always Decisions

(This article, written by former Northwest Missourian editor Bob Lafferty, was originally published in the Mar. 9, 1960 issue of the Missourian.)

Sacked out in our favorite corner of the Den during one of the recent blizzards, we were letting our huskies thaw out for the trek north to the admn. igloo while experimenting with lacquer thinner as a solvent for the coffee, when The Crazy Chick loped up in sneakers and capris and dropped into full lotus position on the table.

"I'm getting married," TCC announced.

Fishing our cigarette out of the coffee and drying it over a match, we tried to think of a suitable reply.

"Well, great," we said, which was an admirable attempt considering we were also busy recalling self treatment for shock. "Many happy returns of the day."

"That's what I had in mind," she said.

Man, this kid can make a sutra sound like something from Aesop's fables!

"What's the what you had in mind?" we asked.

TCC assumed the look of a teacher who realized his pupil would never reach the first stage toward enlightenment.

"Like, the returns," She patted our large shaggy head. "I've found the first white hair. I mean, like senility is the next step. And my social security just isn't adding up. I've got to get either a job or married so I decided to take the easy way out."

The warning bell rang. Here was a real swinging creature on her way to THE fate worse than death. We had to act fast.

"Doll," we ventured. "Have you considered all the implications? For instance, stacks—unending stacks of dirty dishes? And diapers and floors to be mopped and loose buttons and impossible conversations over the morning paper and unpaid bills?"

She shuddered—it was working.

"Besides," we leaned closer and whispered. "Who would have you?"

That was a dirty trick but we were desperate.

TCC slowly slid her prayer beads back into her pocket and began to chew on the end of her pony tail. It was a symbol; either she was beginning to think or her teeth itched.

"Let's rationalize." The end was in sight so we drove on. "Admittedly you're an ancient 19 and about to enter the declining years, but can't you think of something to ease the agonizing comfort of the rocking chair? How about producing a Midwest 'Peyton Place' or making jewelry out of old Shweps bottles or posing for covers of 'The Police Gazette' or smuggling copies of 'Black Beauty' into Little Rock or . . ."

We were so swept away with our own eloquence that we failed to see TCC leave. The last we heard of her was a small note in the personals of the local newspaper: "Woman about to reach middle age wishes to correspond with aged millionaire seeking companionship before death—soon, like." Oh well, some people just have to think for themselves.

This week's "One to be repeated"—found in another college newspaper:

Two little boys were standing on a corder when a little girl walked by.

First little boy: "Her neck's dirty."

Second little boy: "Her does?"

So, with that we'll add only the most unnecessary statement of the year—keep cool, and all that jazz.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"SOMETIMES I DREAD THESE LITTLE 'DEMONSTRATION' SPEECHES!"

Discipline Committee Sets Precedents

During the past few weeks, the Student-Faculty Discipline Committee has had an increase in the number and seriousness of cases brought before it.

For those who are unfamiliar with this committee, it is composed of seven members including the Deans of Men, Women, and Students, plus four Student Senators selected by the student body president. The Committee meets at 4 p.m. on Monday when there is a case to be heard. The student against whom a charge has been lodged may make a statement in his own behalf, and the committee may ask questions. After that, the Committee makes its decision.

The increase in cases has resulted in several newly-established precedents which might be of value to all students.

For example, mutilation of the I. D. card has resulted in some instances in a dismissal from college, especially when it involves the matter of a minor using the falsified I. D. card to purchase liquor.

Another case is that of two students who were found guilty of a series of thefts. The case was also serious enough to result in dismissal from college for the protection of other people in the Residence Halls.

The use of self-imposed probation has been found effective in many instances. In such cases, a letter is placed in the Student Personnel file describing the incident which has occurred and which has been brought before the Committee. The letter may be used as evidence in future cases if necessary. It should be noted that the letter is kept only until the person has completed his college education. Thereafter it is destroyed so as not to permanently affect that person's future.

A recent penalty which has invoked is a period of campus clean-up. A student under this penalty would be directed by Mr. Robert Seipel, superintendent of buildings and grounds, in picking up various types of debris from a designated area on campus.

Cat Tales...

— with Marv Bell

1930-1932, the years King Basketball reigned in Bearcat land with such names as Coach Henry Iba, Ryland Milner, "Jumpin" Jack McCracken, "Duck" Dowell, "Sparky" Stalcup.

The Fighting Bearcats were the number one college team in the nation, with a host of All-Americans who took on all comers, collegiate or otherwise.

It all started in 1930 when Coach Iba, now at Oklahoma State, led his Bearcat team to a 31-0 record and the first of five consecutive MIAA titles. Combined with 11 more victories in a row the next year, the 'Cats held a national record of 42 straight wins before losing to Pittsburg State, Kan., 40-33.

Ironically enough, the Bearcats stopped Pittsburg's 48-game streak the next year with a 20-18 upset. Pittsburg news stories called the game the best ever played in that city and commented that several fans actually hung from the rafters to view the contest.

Then in 1932 the Iba men ran up a 24-game streak before losing the championship of the finals in Kansas City. McCracken, Dowell, and Tom Merrick were named All-Americans for the year. This trio, along with present athletic director Milner, plus Herman Fischer, and Stalcup were all MIAA choices. They were undefeated in league play, closing conference play with a rousing 30-11 win over Kirksville.

Then came the National Tournament in K. C., opened to all organized teams across the nation, with the exception of professional clubs. Most of the competing teams were composed of all-stars of former years. However, these clubs had played a complete schedule just as in collegiate ranks.

The Bearcats romped over one such aggregate, the Spureks, 42-13, in the opening round, dropped the strong Phillips U. team, 23-17, and then upset the Olympic squad, 26-14. But two of the tournament's strongest teams stood in the way, the Kansas Stages and the Wichita Henrys.

Coach Iba's collegiates took the Stages, 22-18, sending them to the national finals against the Wichita team. Earlier in the season, the Bearcats had edged by the Henrys, 16-14.

In the title game, the lead changed hands several times. Then the Bearcats grabbed a one-point margin, only to see a Wichita player score with 30 seconds left to play. The 'Cats got one shot off after that, failing to score and dropping the tilt, 15-14.

As one news release reported the contest: "The basketball stage of the nation in Convention Hall was set for the big game of the tournament; the hall was packed with eight thousand people; sports writers who declined to pick the winner were there for the play-off; all pointed for the climax of a week's great play. The game went to the Henry's, but the glory to the Bearcats—the only college team to weather the storm of a week's strenuous competition against the nation's best."

MSC Wrestlers Extend Win Mark To 19 Behind Wieland

The MSC wrestling team brought their dual wrestling meet wins to 19 straight Friday in defeating the Warrensburg Mules, 31-5, in a match at the MSC gymnasium.

According to Coach Jerry Landwer, the best match of the meet was probably in the 157-pound classification as Lonny Wieland won a decision over Jerry Lorenzinni, 3-1. This was Lorenzinni's first loss in two years. He is a former state high school wrestling champion. The win establishes Wieland as the top wrestler in Missouri in his class.

Harvey Hallum continued to win as he pinned Gary Fleeman. This gives Hallum a 5-0 record this year, four of which have been on pins, and a 14-0 record in dual meets during his college career. His only loss came last year in the finals of the Missouri Valley AAU meet where he lost 2-1 to the eventual second place winner in the national AAU meet.

MSC Loses Finale, 73-60

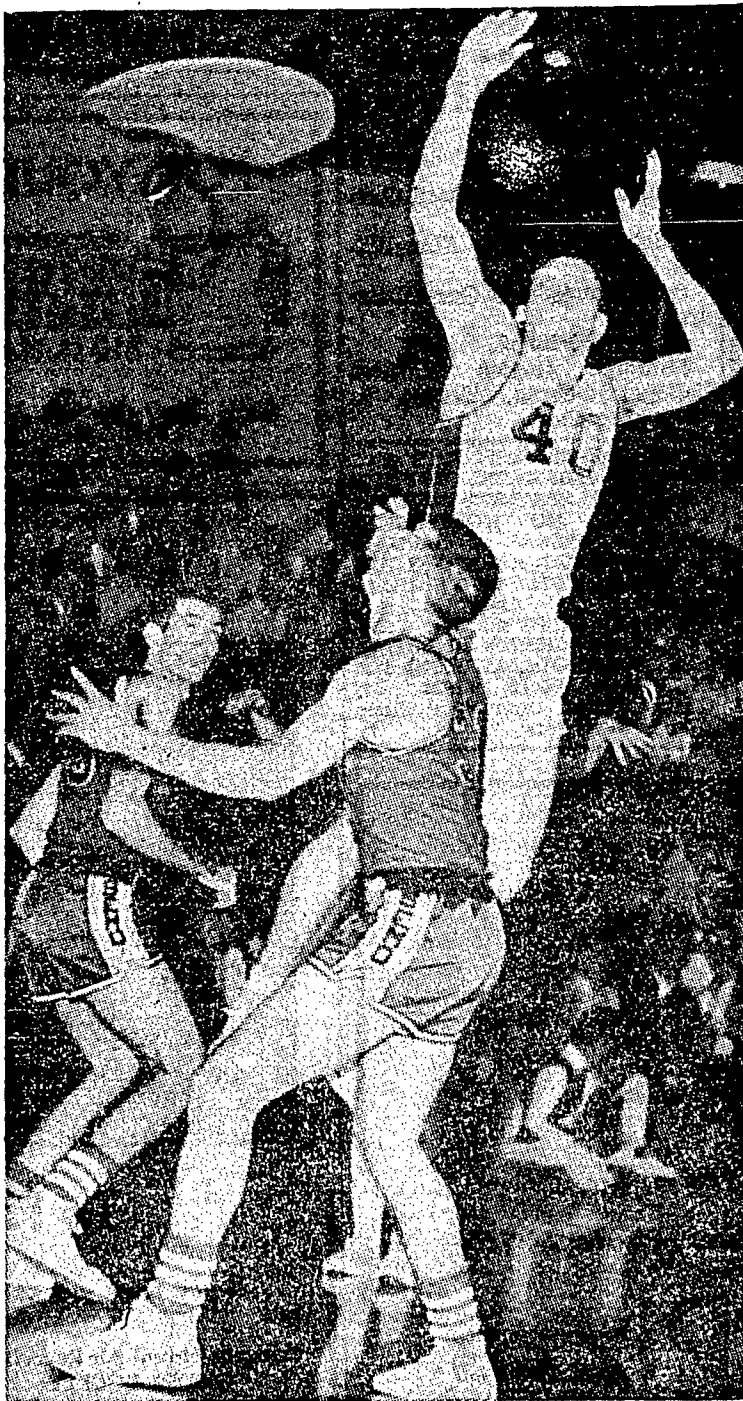

The MSC Bearcats closed the basketball season by throwing a scare into the Kirksville Bulldogs late in the game before losing, 73-60, Saturday night in Lamkin Gymnasium.

The 'Cats cut a 13-point Kirksville margin to 60-54 at the 5:00 mark in the final period, only to see Les Selva whip in six straight points and put the game out of reach. MSC's Nick Neira continued his hot scoring pace with a 23-point effort. Most of Neira's scores came on his patented long range jumpers. Bob Crawford added 11 counters from his guard position.

Tall Bulldogs

It was simply a matter of too much height as far as the 'Cats were concerned as Kirksville's Floyd MacMillon, 6-10 center, blocked several shots and dominated the boards, along with 6-4 forward Dave Taylor and Bob Shaw, a high jumping, 6-3 freshman who pestered the 'Cats with his fine board work and ball handling. At one time Shaw stole the ball and dunked it on the long end of a one-man fast break.

The only bright spot underneath the basket for Coach Dick Buckridge was big Marv Hopper. Hopper gamely battled MacMillon and company off the boards, scored nine points, and led MSC in a brief rough-house session in the final seconds of play.

TWO MORE FOR THE 'CATS—Marv Hopper, Bearcat center, watches his fall-away jumper swish the nets against MIAA champs, Cape Girardeau. Hopper scored 10 points in the contest, although seeing limited action.

'Cat Tankers Boost Record To 9-1 Mark

The MSC swim team traveled to Liberty Wednesday to post a 60-35 win over William Jewell and then to Topeka Saturday for a close 51-14 victory over Washburn University.

At Liberty Maryville won eight of nine events and one of the two relays. Frank Fisher again broke his 200-yd. freestyle school record with a 2:05 clocking.

At Topeka the local tankers had to win the last relay in order to win the meet. Frank Fisher won three events, the 200-yd. and 60-yd. freestyle back to back and the 100-yd. free-style. Bob McCoy set a new school record in the 500-yd. freestyle with a time of 6:12.6. MSC divers again took first and second with Chuck Nurek beating teammate Scott Marriott for the first time this year.

The Bearcats now have an overall season of 9-1. The team travels to Warrensburg Thursday for the Annual Championship Meet, which runs through Saturday.

MSC Swimmers Take Fourth as Pittsburg State Wins 4th Title

The Bearcat swim team closed out their season by placing 4th in the Fourth Annual Intersate Swimming and Diving Championships at Warrensburg last weekend. They had finished their dual meet schedule last Tuesday by tromping Wentworth Military Academy 66-29.

Frank Fisher led the tankers at the Warrensburg meet with 15 of the team's total of 38 points. Fisher won the 50-yard and 100-yard freestyle and placed 3rd in the 200-yard freestyle. Bob McCoy earned three points by placing 3rd in the 1,650-yard freestyle. Ed Smith earned one point by placing 5th in the 100-yard butterfly.

Ed Atkins earned 10 points by placing 1st in the 400-yard individual medley and 2nd in the 200-yard individual medley. Scott Marriott and Chuck Nurek placed 4th and 5th respectively in the diving. The freestyle relay composed of Bill Watson, Frank Fisher, Bob McCoy and Ed Atkins placed 3rd.

Ten teams and over 100 swimmers participated in the meet. Pittsburg State won 1st place for the fourth consecutive year. Pittsburg had 90 points, Principia, 49, Emporia, 43, and Maryville, 38 points.

Five records were broken in the dual meet with Wentworth. Frank Fisher set two pool and varsity records by winning the 60-yard freestyle in 28.9 to break his old record of 29.6 and the 100-yard freestyle in 52.6 to break the record of 53.8.

Mike Peterson, 'Cat front liner, goes up for a score in the Kirksville contest. Peterson's hustle has inspired MSC rallies on several occasions.

Cat Tales...

— with Marv Bell

Nick Neira and Mike Peterson provided two views of the Bearcats basketball fortunes this past season. With a final record of 5-17, these men could well be termed as representatives of Coach Dick Buckridge's team.

Neira completed his basketball eligibility against Kirksville by scoring 23 points, typical of his sterling performances throughout a losing season. He sparked an ill-fated rally which nearly pulled MSC to a final upset in their last game of the season.

Throughout the year, Neira's long range bombing kept the 'Cats' only a step behind for the most part. With a little offensive support at a more consistent rate, MSC's final slate could have been near .500. Even though double-teamed during the last half of the season, Neira's final average was only a shade under 18 points per outing, his floor work was superior, and his hustle never diminished.

Nick is our choice for the Most Valuable Player and a berth on the MIAA All-Star team.

Peterson is the other half of the Bearcat picture. Arriving late for workouts because of football, he was at a definite disadvantage and did not make the active squad for several games.

Working his way up to the sixth man position and then on to a starting berth, Peterson averaged eight points a game, not a spectacular figure, but a respectable one. At

Coach Richey Reports Progress With Daily Ball Practices

The MSC baseball team has been working out daily for several weeks in preparation for the coming season.

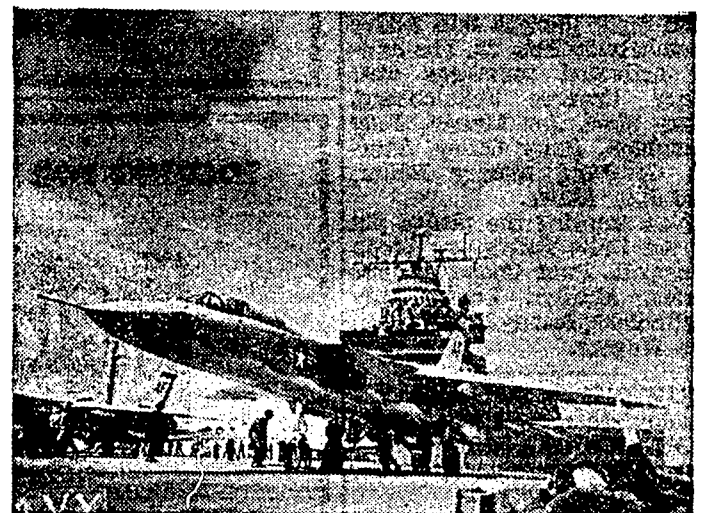

Coach Burton Richey reports that prospects are bright thus far. A complete report from Coach Richey will appear in next week's Missourian.

6-1, Peterson gave away anywhere from three to eight inches on rebounds with opposing frontliners. Possibly his best effort was against Pittsburg when he scored 19 points to lead the 'Cats' to an upset win. Peterson has to receive our nod as the Most Improved Player.

Nick Neira, the MIAA's fourth leading scorer, adds two more to his total against Kirksville, as he bids for a berth on the all-league team.
